

Fifth-year M.B.A.

A Master of Business Administration can add value to your Samford degree and distinguish you in a crowded job market. Now you can earn your M.B.A. from Brock School of Business in only one additional year.

To be eligible for the fifth-year M.B.A., simply earn any degree from Howard College of Arts and Sciences, or Human Development and Family Science in Orlean Beeson School of Education, and add a general business minor. By earning a minor in general business, students will meet all prerequisites for the M.B.A. prior to completing their bachelor's degree.

General Business Minor Course Requirements

- Accounting Concepts I
- Introduction to Data Analytics
- World of Business
- Principles of Macroeconomics
- Financial Management
- Principles of Marketing
- Principles of Management

To learn more, contact: Heather Averett, M.B.A. | Director of Graduate and Undergraduate Student Services | 205-726-2040 | heaveret@samford.edu

Samford University
Brock School of Business

samford.edu/business/fifth-year-mba

Samford University is an Equal Opportunity Educational Institution/Employer.